Product Profile: Acrylic Color Theory Set

The Utrecht Artist's Acrylic Color Theory Set is intended to help develop understanding of color mixing principles with a minimal primary palette and a mixing guide.

Contents:

- Titanium White
- Ivory Black
- Hansa Yellow Pale
- Quinacridone Red
- Phthalo Blue (Greenish Shade)
- Mixing Guide

The included Mixing Guide provides a color wheel along with fundamental information about selecting and using color. The Guide is a useful accessory for painters at every stage and an excellent choice for introductory classes.

The Color Theory Set provides a basic palette from which can be mixed a complete range of spectral hues. This palette is perfect for classroom exercises as well as any artist wishing to use the fewest possible colors

Add a small amount of white to each primary to reveal undertones and temperature.

Challenge yourself to mix every shade including secondaries (green, orange, violet), tertiaries (earth colors) and neutrals (grays).
